

The Tale of One Bad Elf

Welcome to the Annual Pre-Christmas Kick-off Meeting at E.L.F. Workshops, LTD! This yearly meeting of the higher-ups at the Workshop is held to boost morale and prep everyone for the big push leading up to the big day: Christmas Eve! Hosted by Holly Jolly, VP of Human(ish) Resources, this get-together gives each department head a chance to let everyone know where their department stands in preparation for the upcoming holiday.

But this year, there is a rumor floating around the Village that Holly Jolly will be firing a key member of Santa's team for some naughty doings that violate E.L.F. Rules of Conduct. Will it cost Holly Jolly her life? And at whose hands? Kandy Kane, head of Sweets and treats? Soot Major from the coal mining syndicate? Perhaps even her own administrative assistant, Mitzi Blitzi?

Join Happy Goodcheer, Executive Head of Elf Relations, as he and the participants navigate greed, corruption and strife in Santa's Village to uncover the culprit and motive behind the attack.
