

The Adventurers' Guild

Philanthropist and history buff Millicent 'Millie' O'Nair was pleased to announce that The International Guild of Intrepid Adventurers is meeting once again for their Annual Societal Gala and the presentation of the Golden Orb Award for Historical Preservation Excellence. This award is given yearly to one of eight chosen finalists who have proven themselves worthy in their respective fields and includes a lifetime membership to the Guild.

But this year, foul dealings are afoot. An attempt has been made on Millie's life prior to the announcement of the winner and it can only be assumed that it was to cover up the dastardly deeds of a Guild member eyeing for the prize. Was it famed archeologist Montana Smith? Flying ace Fanny Saerburn? Trailblazer of the Amazon, Nigel Whackenbush? Or any of the other of the globetrotting finalists?

Join last year's winner, Major Alistair Stewart, as he and the Guild members try to uncover the culprit and the motive behind the attack on their beloved Ms. O'Nair.
